Road Hier	archy
	— Arterial Roads	Sub-collector Roads		State High	ıways
	— Principal Roads ———	Shopping Streets
	Collector Roads	- Local Roads
Cultural Heritage Sites
•	Cultural Heritage Sites		•	Wahi Tapu
0	Highly Significant Sites
	1 - Precincts Precincts are areas that have been identified as having a very high incidence of cultural heritage evidence, in the recent review*. The locations are sites of early European and/or pre-European occupation and active The possibility of new archaeological artefat being discovered is considered to be high.	rity. acts		by a qualified ar review*, and the	undaries be been visited and assessed chaeologist in the recent extent of the site, beyond a determined and mapped.
	2a - Verified and Assessed Sites These sites have been visited and assesse for significance by a qualified archaeologist The location of each site has been verified, however because the extent of each has no been precisely recorded, a 20 metre buffer been used to identify the high probability of evidence beingdiscovered beyond the poin location.	t. , ot has f		for significance, The location of e however becaus been precisely r been used to ide	es been visited, but not assessed by a qualified archaeologist. each site has been verified, se the extent of each site has not ecorded, a 20 metre buffer has entify the high probability of discovered beyond the point
	3 - DoC Sites These sites are located on Department of Conservation land.			due to lack of acc physical access. uncertainty about significance of ea has been used to	recently Visited not visited in the recent review*, cess permission or difficult Because of the high degree of the location and potential ach site, a 100 metre square identify the approximate g their original grid reference
* 'Recent review' refers to the findings of archaeologist Karen Greig in "Heritage Assessment of Archaeological Sites in the Tasman District" (2007), and Maori cultural heritage specialists, Hilary and John Mitchell in their report "Cultural Heritage Significance of Maori Archaeological Sites and Wahi Tapu in the Tasman District" (2008)
High Fire-Risk Area
High Fire-Risk Area
Locational Features
Та	sman District Council	Other Districts			Sea
Ro	oads ——	Rivers

PART II: LAND